

Call for Papers

In Progress: A Graduate Journal of North American Studies

Deadline for submission: October 15, 2026

In Progress is a peer-reviewed online journal based at the English Department of Leibniz University Hannover, Germany. It provides a space to publish excellent work written by graduate students in Anglophone literary, cultural, and media studies, focusing in particular (but not exclusively) on the field of North American Studies. In Progress seeks outstanding academic writing that demonstrates the excellence of graduate scholarship and strives to include a diversity of perspectives. We especially encourage submissions of revised term papers and chapters from BA and MA theses written by students who are currently enrolled in MA-level programs (or equivalent).

For the next issue (vol. 5, no. 1), In Progress invites contributions of at least 6,000 and up to 7,500 words (including abstract, footnotes, and list of works cited). In addition to your article, please include a short biographical note about yourself (up to 150 words) in a separate file. All submissions should be written in English and adhere to the journal's submission guidelines:
